Fabrics, surfaces and finishing touches...

Blue mood

Casamance's Azuli collection of wall coverings is a treasure trove of rich gemstone shades, from sapphire blue to ruby red. Part-peacock feather, part-marble effect, this Grenat vinyl design took our fancy for its stunning turquoise hues that are both soothing and seriously luxe. It will make a proud display in any space. £313.30 for a H300 x W204cm panel (casamance.com)

BRIGHT RELIEF

Paint expert Mylands has teamed up with furniture upcycling charity Out of the Dark to launch a capsule collection of paint colours for wood and metal. Transform your old pieces with shades including Royal Mint, top, and Mare Street, bottom, and 10 per cent of the profits will go to the charity and give disadvantaged young people a helping hand. £25.98 for 1l (mylands.co.uk)

LOVES

ON THE PULL

Trust London's coolest concept store, Darkroom, to turn an everyday object such as a light pull into a directional statement piece. Made from chunky Perspex, wood and laminate shapes, these mini works of art will serve as an ultra-stylish reminder to turn off the lights after you leave a room. £85 each (darkroomlondon.com)

Block party

Parquet is the flooring trend of the moment, but installing it can be a lengthy process. Junckers wide board Whalebone Staves in Black Oak, above, are pre-finished in UltraMatt lacquer so the floor's ready to walk on as soon as it's laid, saving time and lingering smells. £100 per sq m (junckers.co.uk)

Snail pace

Bespoke passementerie for the likes of Vivienne Westwood, Jessica Light takes trimming into another realm. Our favourite from her new Temple Gardens collection is this spiralled cotton, rayon and elastic Snail braid. Definitely worth shelling out for. £66 per m (jessicalight.co.uk)
